AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I, ROBERT G. SMITH, am employed by the Army Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES) at Maxwell Air Force Base as a store detective. On or about 26 November 2006, via closed circuit monitors, I observed NETTE GARRISON and her daughter Kelsey Garrison, in the purse display section of the Base Exchange (BX). NETTE GARRISON had a black Coach wallet in her hand, took the papers out of it, and put it in her shopping cart. She then covered it with some boxes. I continued to watch. Kelsey Garrison had the wrist bag and as she leaned against the shopping cart at the central checkout, she put the bag in the bottom of the shopping cart. As NETTE GARRISON put items on the counter to be scanned, she put them back in the cart after scanning and covered up the wallets. After paying for the other items, NETTE and Kelsey left the store. They were detained in the parking lot, identified and escorted to the security office. Security Forces was called and responded. When Security Forces arrived, the shopping cart was searched and five unpaid wallets and purses were found. The items charged to NETTE GARRISON were a Sig Min wallet, black – value $126.00; a Sig wrist handbag, black – value $38.00; another Sig wrist handbag, black – value $38.00; and a 6-quart slow cooker – value $34.95. Kelsey was charged with the Sig beaded wristlet, camel - - value $70.00. Total value of the items was $306.95. Both NETTE GARRISON and Kelsey Garrison was transported to the Law Enforcement Desk for further processing. NETTIE GARRISON is an agent for her mother, who was with the pair at the time, but was not charged.

ROBERT G. SMITH

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of November, 2007.
